DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many people strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace in your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

Class Of '75
Do You Remember When?

The photographer's bulb didn't work for half the senior pictures

The sprinkler dripped on you in the library

You never saw what anyone else wore because everyone wore their coats all day to keep warm

You had 3 priority-1 x-block programs the same day

There were windows over the lockers

You drove to school for the very first time and parked at the end of the row

You got wolf whistles when you walked through the construction areas

We had food carts instead of a cafeteria

The basketball team was crawling on the gym floor looking for a contact lens

You refused to come out of the locker room in those stretched out bathing suits

You could sleep until 11:30 and still be on time for school

Homeroom was after first period

We had pale green walls and brown lockers

We waited in the auditorium before school

You could read your schedule

You got hit by the black fire door because you didn't judge the swing right

We were freshmen?

Mike,

You're really a great person, who I'm glad that made it out of school. Remember our great English class that nobody ever went to. You've got a great personality and I hope that you stay the same always. Don't forget you're saying that you always say. That right now I could kill myself cause I can't remember, Oh well it will come to me sooner or later. Keep in touch over the summer & we'll probably see you at the parties tonight. Take Care & Stay Happy. Best of Luck to you in what ever you do in life

Once Upon A Time

Sure, I'll pass that test!

TIME TOGETHER

When the sun set golden and leaves were to jump in, mountains were to climb,
snowfall was lovely,
and flowers were for picking
To pull off the petals —
He loves me, he loves me not.
The joy of life was to be young and frivolous.
Imaginations wandered wildly anticipating grown-up fantasies.

A funny thing happened on the path as we stumbled happily along.
We grew up.

Now sunset means the end of another day.

Rake the leaves, burn them.
They're in the way, killing the grass.

Another mountain?
Let's go around this one.
Mountains are to climb only when young.
How nice to be conservative
With our time and our energy!

More snow to shovel.
Hope the weatherman's wrong . . .

Arrange the flowers.
Place them neatly in the spot selected for them.
Throw away the petals that have so unfortunately fallen with age.

Dreams and fantasies?
Withered long ago
With the realization of life
Beyond the post-adolescent stage.

Ah, to be young again.

My Mind

Is the continuum of time
And inside lies all answers
I find Answer I know you're in there so please come out
So I can tell Socrates what it's all about.
All the stars in the celestial sky.
Three times the square root plus the circumference times
II Voices from ceilings, visions in the air.
I try to tell them 'tis Supernatural warfare
And my mind has hemispheres
Left and right
They co-produce my dreams
every night
Falling naked from a cliff
It's just another Freudian slip and my mind knows also eternal bliss
Like the Chinese priest and the holy Buddhist.
Buddha man prays on his knees makes mind fly through the trees, swims with fish, threads eye of needle.
It all seems so very unreal.
But nothing my mind could do.
If it hadn't been influenced By you, you and you.

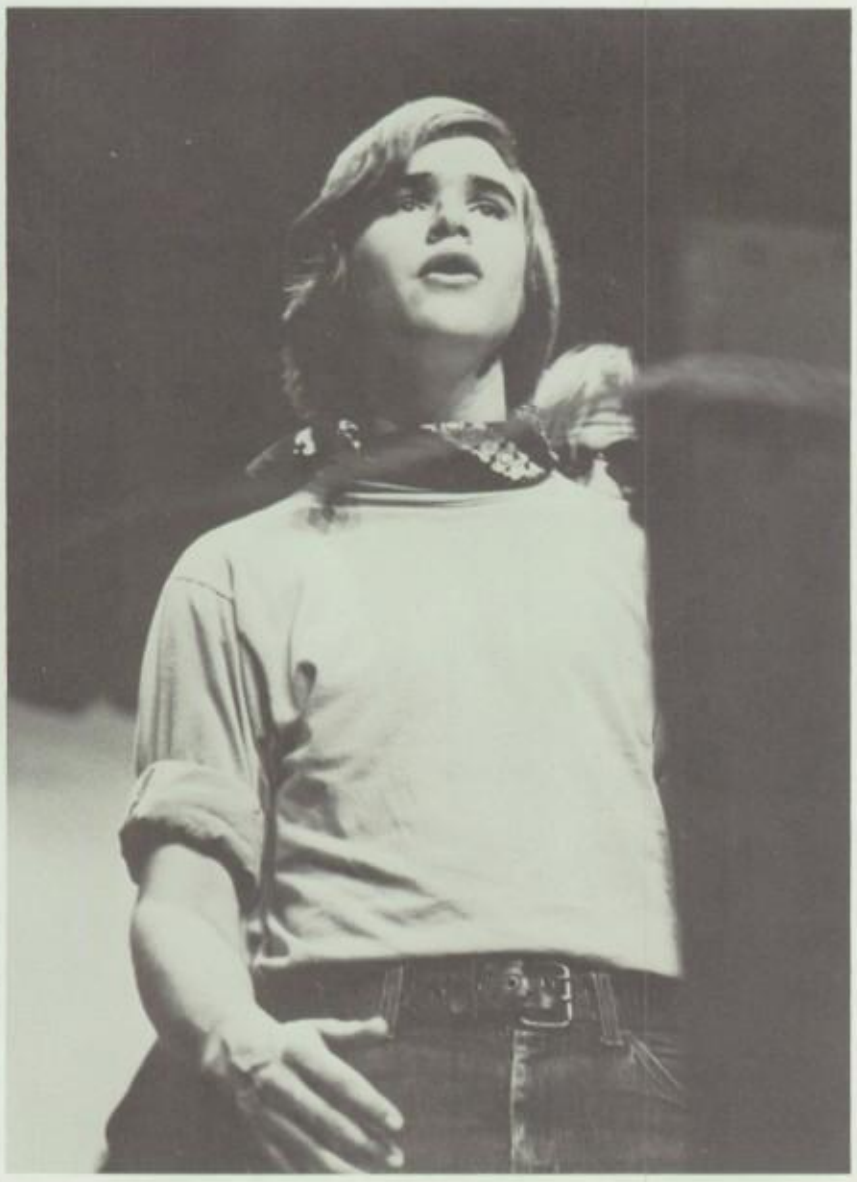
PINAFORE

Anna Vernali

John Bain and Deanna Charette



Ken Johnson

H.M.S. PINAFORE is a musical written by Gilbert and Sullivan, portraying the British Navy during the 19th century. The play centers around many couples aboard the PINAFORE, who are kept apart for several reasons: Josephine and Ralph, Buttercup and Captain Corcoran belong to different classes, and Josephine's love is for a common sailor, not Sir Joseph. The grumblings of Dick Deadeye (Bob DeCresenzo), the hint of a dark secret by Buttercup, along with a fine line of music and dialogue made this play so entertaining. The play concludes in happiness with all the couples — Ralph and Josephine (Ken Johnson and Anna Vernali), Captain Corcoran and Buttercup (Wayne Moore and Jan Blinn), and Sir Joseph and Hebe (John Bain and Deanna Charette) — finally brought together.

You've got a Friend, Ain't it good to know, you've got a Friend

— James Taylor

We do not

Everything comes and goes Pleasure moves on too early
And trouble leaves too slow
Just when you're thinking you've Finally got it made Bad news comes knocking at your gardengate Knocking for you

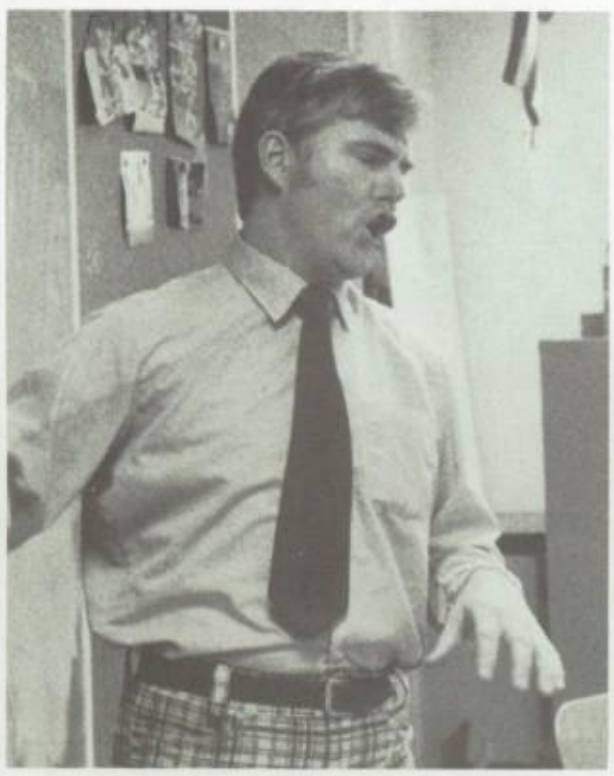
Altogether now!

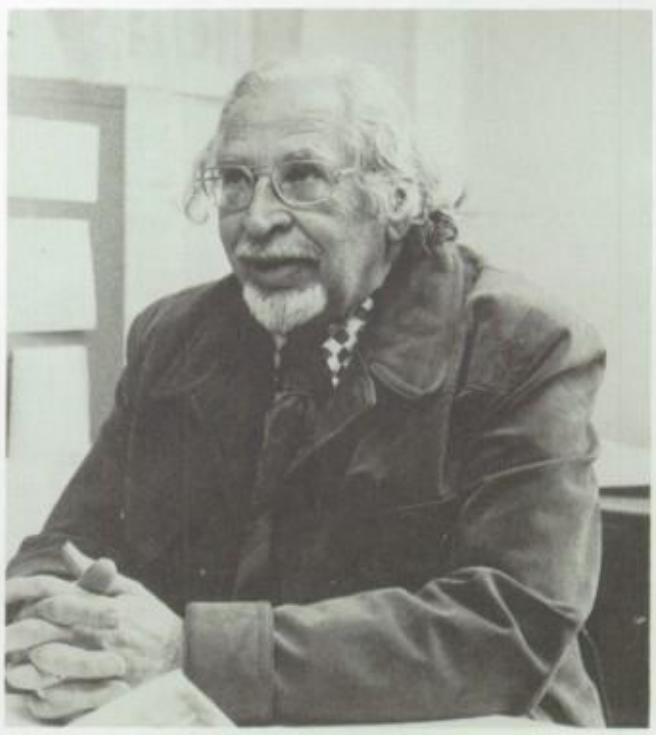
Hi, I'm Barbara — fly me!

Honest guys, it was only a joke!

Will the real father Richard please stand up?

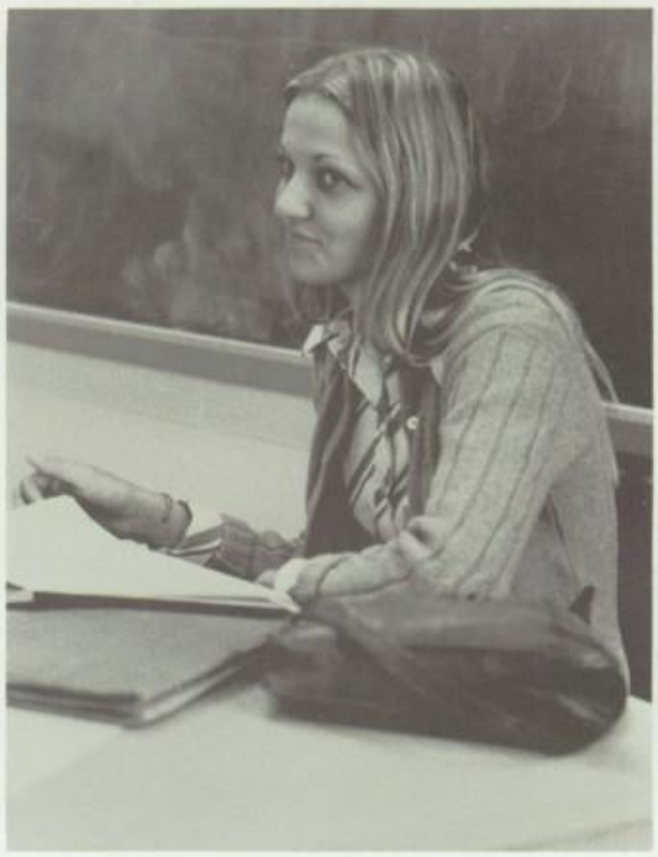


"Bon sante"

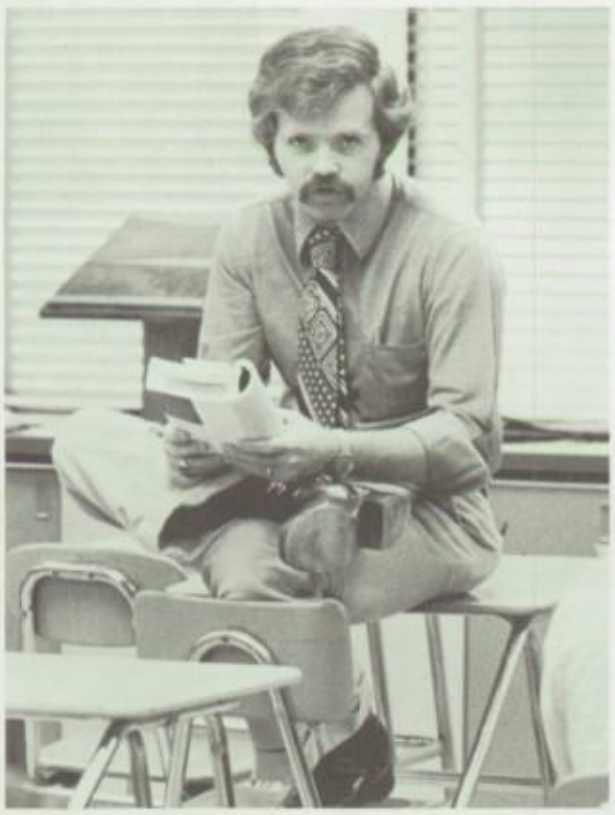


Our father who art in heaven . . .

But . . .



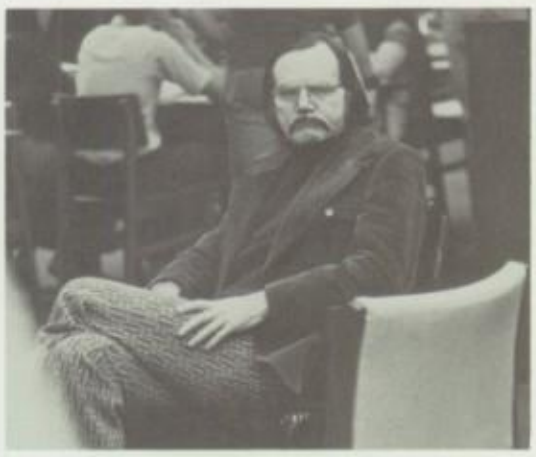
You're putting me on!



Would you buy a car from this man?

You swallowed what?

No, you can't have any!



"Out, out d . . . spot!"

Be on good terms with all persons

listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story

Ramzi,

I really do think that if you shaved off your stupid Porterican mustache you might blend in with the rest of us straight-haired folk.

Bob

Mike,

your a real great kid who I'll always remember. I wish you the best of luck in the future and in everything you do. Have a great summer and hope to see you. Best of LUCK
